

Free 2-Day Shelter Behavior Seminar

Save the Dates

Thursday, October 5 and Friday, October 6

Sponsored by
 Alley Cat Allies

Location Bloomfield Township Library - South of Pontiac

Breakfast, drinks and snacks will be provided. Lunch is not included but there are plenty of nearby eating establishments and fast food restaurants (or you can brown-bag-it and eat at the library).

A two-day seminar given by Animal Alliances Director Kelley Bollen is designed for shelter staff, animal control officers, shelter & rescue volunteers and administrators to learn more about addressing the behavioral health of the animals in their care.

Registration opens August 1

2210 Lancaster Road
Bloomfield Hills, MI 48302
michiganpetfund.org

Subjects Covered

Day 1

- Intake and Adoptions - A Behavior Perspective
- Reading Dog and Cat Body Language & Safe Animal Handling
- Stress Recognition and Reduction
- Behavioral and Environmental Enrichment

Day 2

- Understanding Aggression in the Domestic Dog
- Canine Behavior Evaluations
- Feline Behavior Evaluations
- How Animals Learn
- Training & Behavior Modification in the Shelter

Participants will receive a Certificate of Completion IAABC - 16 CEU's, CCPDT - 11 CEU's for Trainers and 3 CEU's for Behavior Consultants

For more information visit

michiganpetfund.org

Direct questions to: info@michiganpetfund.org